Curc of Wm. II. Lampton, Esq., of Portsmouth, 0.

To the Public:

It was my misfortune to suffer for years with a distressing disease of the throat and lungs, which made my breathing quite difficult, and brought on an exhaustive and obstinate cough, greatly enfolling my health. To add to my affliction, I becam to lose my hearing, and grew so deaf that I could not hear preaching, even when in the seat ucarest to our minister. Growing steadily worse in spite of all the usual medical efforts, I applied to Dr. Lighthill in February last, and, to my agreeable surprise, I improved from the very commencement of his treatment. The troublesome cough diminished, the breathing became free and natural, the distress in my throat disappeared, and my hearing was came free and natural, the distress in my throat disappeared, and my hearing was restored, so that I now can hear preaching in the most distant part of the church.

I make this statement for the benefit of those suffering with diseases similar to my own, as I feel confident that Dr. Lighthill can cure them if a cure is within human skill. From my own happy experience, I can conscientiously recommend the Doctor to all those suffering from deafness or diseases of the throat and lungs.

Six cases and one death from cholera were reported in this city to-day.

In the full bench of the Supreme Court in this city to day, it was decided that the excise law is constitutional, and that the liquor dealers must take out licenses or pay the penalty. It was also decided that the Board of Excise cannot be enjoined.

The decision was unanimous.

The election yesterday for county officers and supervisors resulted in favor of the Union ticket. Cowley was elected Chief of Police, Story Tax Collector, and Ilale Auditor. The Democrats elected two or three supervisors out of seven. Very little interest was manifested and but a two-thirds vote east.

Holbrook, Democratic eandidate for Congress in Ilaho, has been elected by one thousand majority.

A Woman Commences an Ac- soid P R C Ly. tion for Divorce, and Is Unable to Prove her Marriage.-A Villainous Husband.

In one of or certs last we ken new hois known as one of the mest lar livillains of this locality receive the reward due to his offens against the law, and for a while liety will be deprive of his presence. His name, however, is prominently connected with a at now proding lefter another court, the crounstances of which are so singular, and at the same tile so unfortunate for the lady with whom his fate has been linked, as to be worthy of record. For his aske we fer cast to de guate the paths with more particularity.

Twenty years ago the man thin a young man of good reputation a dipromise, married the daughter of a well-to-do farmer in one of the neighbor of a well-to-do farmer is one of the neighbor of them. The wife was a woman of more than ordinary stractions, well educated and refined. Not long after the birth of their child now a young woman pintlenty are his cells.

Not long since the father of the second wife was put in possession of facts which led him to suppose that his putative sonin-law had been guilty of bigamy, and coming to this city sought out the first wife, and learned the truth of the case. The wife immediately began an action for divorce.

The wife immediately began an action for divorce.

The cool scoundrel, however, was ready for any turn of affers, and immediately met the situation y boldly denying that he was ever before married. The horror and indignation of the mother and her daughter can be imagined, and they immediately set to work to obtain the necessary proofs of the marriage. The certificate was nowhere to be found, and it is anspected that the husbaud, having obtained possession of it, had destroyed it. On further inquiry it was found that the Justice who had performed the marriage was dead, without having left a record of any of the marriage which he had solemnized. The grief stricken woman moreover found that the witnesses to the marriage were scattered to the ends of the earth, and lost to her in unknown localities. Up to the present time no traces of them have been found, and it is not even known whether any are still alive. Hopes are, however, entertained that among the effects of the Justice spoken of, some record may yet be discovered. The moral of the story must be plain to every married woman.—Buf-
